About EDMO

Founded in 2004, EDMO is a national award-winning education nonprofit on a mission to create pathways for lifelong success for kids, families, and communities. Through accessible, high-quality programs, we equip diverse learners to overcome systemic barriers and become curious, courageous, and kind leaders.

Mission Statement

EDMO's mission is to create pathways for lifelong success for kids, families, and communities.

Our Values

Inclusivity

We create the environment we want to see in the world—a space of deep belonging where everyone feels valued, supported and heard.

Authenticity

We foster a community where everyone flourishes side by side. By showing up as our true selves, we create a space where trust and learning thrive.

Connection

We recognize that we are all connected and intentionally create a ripple effect of lasting, positive change.

Brand Essence

Where Partnership Meets Possibility

A space where collaboration sparks innovation, programs grow with purpose, and every student discovers what's possible.

Purpose and Positioning

Purpose

To guide all marketing and communications for EDMO's partner audiences — including districts, schools, and educational leaders — by aligning every message with the EDMO Method, our commitment to equity, and our passion to fuel student growth and community impact.

Positioning Statement

EDMO is a trusted partner for schools and districts seeking to provide high-quality programs in their communities. We combine STEAM and SEL expertise with compliance and funding fluency to create programs that meet state standards, support families, and deliver measurable results — all within budget.

Core Message Map

Core Idea:

When we invest in kids, communities thrive.

Core Promise:

EDMO helps schools and districts deliver high-quality, compliant programs that inspire kids, support families, and strengthen communities.

Emotional Hook:

Behind every funding plan and attendance report is a student discovering confidence, curiosity, and connection. EDMO partners with schools and districts to make those moments possible — turning partnership into progress, and programs into opportunity.

Key Differentiators

EDMO's Unique Positions

Expertise that Delivers.

Our first afterschool programs were ASES-funded, and we've been in the ELO-P space since its inception. We understand compliance inside and out — and design programs that meet every requirement while inspiring real-world learning.

The EDMO Method.

Developed with the UC Berkeley Greater Good Science Center, the EDMO Method is our framework for fostering both academic and social-emotional growth. Rooted in Self-Awareness, Problem-Solving, Advocacy, Collaboration, and Empathy (SPACE), it ensures every program nurtures the whole child, equipping them with the tools to lead, innovate, and thrive.

Results You Can See.

EDMO programs drive measurable improvement — from higher attendance rates to improved SEL and academic growth. We don't just meet standards; we help raise them.

Compliance Made Simple.

Our team manages complex state and federal requirements — ensuring funding is maximized, audits are stress-free, and every box is confidently checked.

Influence Where It Counts.

Through our active involvement in CA3 and direct advocacy at the state level, we elevate our partners' voices and help shape policies that support expanded learning for all kids.

Supporting Proof Points

- 98% of families report significant growth in their kids' SEL skills.
- 81% report improved homework completion.
- 80% see greater confidence in STEAM topics.
- 83% of kids are more excited to attend school.
- 96% of families plan to return to EDMO programs.
- Programs fully compliant with ASES, ELO-P, and state audit requirements.
- Designed in alignment with research-backed frameworks and the UC Berkeley Greater Good Science Center.

Core Brand Themes

Storytelling Pillars

Pillar 1: Partnership that Works

Narrative:

Behind every successful program is a strong partnership. EDMO collaborates with schools and districts to co-design programs that meet unique community needs — aligning goals, funding, and logistics to make impact possible.

Supporting Message:

When partnership thrives, possibility expands.

Pillar 2: Expertise You Can Count On

Narrative:

EDMO brings nearly two decades of experience in expanded learning. From ELO-P implementation to audit preparation, we help districts navigate complex requirements with confidence.

Supporting Message:

We manage the details so you can focus on what matters most — your students.

Pillar 3: Impact that Lasts

Narrative:

EDMO programs don't just meet compliance; they drive real outcomes. Increased attendance, improved SEL and academic performance, and higher family satisfaction all point to one truth — partnership creates lasting progress.

Supporting Message:

The best results come from working together.

Implementation Notes

- Consistency is key
 - Maintain the same visual identity as the family-facing brand, but with cleaner layouts and confident design cues (bolder headers, refined color use, structured white space).
- Lead with Partnership
 - Use phrases like “co-designed with districts,” “aligned with funding goals,” and “in partnership with educators” to emphasize shared ownership.
- Highlight Measurable Impact
 - Use data, testimonials, and real results to support every claim.
- Include Compliance Expertise
 - Reference ASES, ELO-P, and audit readiness as trust anchors.
- Balance Heart and Strategy
 - Pair data and credibility with real human stories — students, educators, and communities.
- Cross-Channel Harmony
 - Use anchors like “Where Partnership Meets Possibility,” “Beyond Compliance,” and “Education in Action” across all partner-facing materials.
- Tone Check
 - Every message should pass this test — Does it sound like an expert who genuinely cares about kids and believes in collaboration?
